

Statistics Canada is hiring Field Operations Supervisors

Looking to make a lasting contribution to Canada, its communities and people?

Canada's next census will take place in the spring of 2021. We are hiring Field Operations Supervisors across Canada to assist in collecting census information. Job start and end dates vary by location, but are between November 2020 and July 2021.

Requirements:

- possess a valid driver's licence
- experience in managing projects
- ability to recruit, train and motivate staff
- ability to prioritize tasks
- leadership
- teamwork.

Assets for those positions:

- previous census experience (for all position locations)
- experience working in First Nations communities (for select locations)
- knowledge of relevant social topics for First Nations communities (for select locations).

Salary range: $61,558 to $66,324

Don't miss this opportunity to be part of a large-scale, national project. Working for Statistics Canada will help you broaden your skills and gain professional, marketable experience.

The Census Program has adapted to the COVID-19 situation to ensure that the 2021 Census of Population is conducted throughout the country in the best possible way, using a safe and secure approach.
