www.fnuniv.ca
Toll Free 1.800.267.6303
info@fnuniv.ca

Know Before You Go

FNUniv Fall 2026 Convocation

Congratulations, Graduates!

The First Nations University of Canada is honoured to celebrate your achievements at the Fall 2026 Convocation. To help ensure a memorable and stress-free experience, please review the information below before arriving.

Before Convocation

- Confirm Your Attendance on Eventbrite
- Check your email regularly for event updates and instructions.

Arrive Early for Grad Photos

- Graduates should arrive at 10:45 AM without their guests for an opportunity to get their grad photos taken.
- Guest admission will begin at 12:00 PM when doors open. Please note, guests will not be granted access to the room before 12:00 P.M.

What to Bring

- Government-issued photo identification.
- Comfortable footwear, as there will be periods of standing and walking.
- Any cultural regalia or meaningful items you wish to wear in accordance with FNUniv Convocation protocols. FNUniv proudly celebrates the cultures, traditions, and identities of First Nations, Inuit, and Métis graduates.
- Graduates are welcome to wear: Traditional clothing and regalia, beadwork, sashes, and other cultural items such as Eagle feathers and culturally significant items.

Guest Seating

- Guest seating is available on a first-come, first-served basis unless otherwise communicated.
- There is no assigned seating – if you have groups of 8 or more, please arrive on time when the doors open at 12 PM.
- Accessible seating will be available for guests requiring accommodation.

Photography and Recording

- Guests are welcome to take photographs from their seats.
- Please be respectful of graduates and their guests and avoid blocking aisles or views during the ceremony.

www.fnuniv.ca
Toll Free 1.800.267.6303
info@fnuniv.ca

Ceremony Protocol - Procession

- Graduates will be directed by Convocation staff regarding lineup and seating.
- Follow staff instructions throughout the ceremony.

Crossing the Stage

- Listen for your name and proceed when directed by the Marshal.
- Pause briefly for official photographs before returning to your seat.

Respectful Conduct

FNUniv Convocation incorporates Indigenous traditions and ceremonial elements.
We ask all attendees to participate respectfully and help maintain the dignity of the celebration.

Accessibility and Accommodations

If you or your guests require accessibility support, please contact the FNUniv Convocation team as soon as possible to ensure arrangements can be made.

Celebrate Responsibly

Convocation is a significant achievement for graduates, families, communities, and Nations. We encourage everyone to celebrate safely and respectfully while creating lasting memories.

For questions regarding Convocation, please contact:
Convocation@firstnationsuniversity.ca

We look forward to celebrating with you. Congratulations, Class of Fall 2026! 🎓 🪶