Career Opportunity

The Indigenous Business Department is hiring an Indigenous Business Development Student (temporary, up to 4 months) on a temporary basis at our offices in Saskatoon or Regina, SK.

What you’ll do:
You will have the opportunity to further your knowledge within your discipline by applying technical concepts and frameworks in a business setting, supporting the resolution of actual business problems, and developing a deeper understanding of career possibilities. You will have the opportunity to see first-hand how a large, complex, multifaceted organization functions, while also developing an understanding of the cooperative model and its benefits.

- You will apply technical skills, knowledge, and concepts gained through post-secondary education to day-to-day problems and activities. You will refine your skills by applying learnings from the classroom to the workplace.
- You will provide support to Indigenous Business Development Manager in researching and executing the Indigenous Business Development growth priorities and partnership objectives and work across functions to support the implementation of the Indigenous Engagement strategy.
- You will work close with other business units to support the Indigenous Business Development manager’s effort in identifying, assessing, and capturing new business to business opportunities in partnerships with the other business units.
- You will support the creation of strategic communication materials including reports, briefings, presentations and understand the target/intended audience and create materials with a strong customer focus.
- You will support the development, implementation and maintenance of assigned projects or programs. You will research Indigenous Business Development and Indigenous Engagement metrics and develop a database for all Indigenous Business Development contacts.

Who you are:
You are looking for a career in Strategy & Communications and:
- You are currently enrolled in a post-secondary program
- You are proficient in Microsoft Office (Excel, Word, PowerPoint)
- You’re honest and trustworthy, are results oriented and strive to be the best in what you do.
- You believe in collaboration, building relationships and value the perspectives of others.

This opportunity is a career level Student Rate – Management position.
