

First Nations University of Canada to Host the Annual Prince Albert Elders' Gathering

March 10, 2020, Regina, SK. - First Nations University of Canada (FNUUniv), in collaboration with the National Centre for Collaboration in Indigenous Education (NCCIE), are pleased to announce its last Elders' Gathering for the 2020 series in Prince Albert, SK. This is the second year to host the Elders' Gatherings in all three of its campus locations.

The theme is Indigenous Languages and the Intricacies of our Worldviews. Both resident and guest Elders and Knowledge Keepers from across the province will share their knowledge, stories, teachings, and practices.

Launched during the University's 40th Anniversary Celebrations, the Elders' Conference, now renamed as Elders' Gathering, began with our resident Elders, who work with students and staff on our three campuses (Regina, Saskatoon, and Prince Albert).

The Prince Albert Elders' Gathering will take place Thursday, March 12th at the Prince Albert Inn. The day will begin with a pipe ceremony at 8:00am, followed by an Opening including Dene Drummers and welcome remarks by FNUUniv Interim President and NCCIE Saskatchewan Regional Lead.

This event is free and open to the public and the media. Registration is available on-site starting 8:00am at the Marquis Room Salon.
