

First Nations University of Canada to Host the Annual Elders' Gatherings in 3 Locations Across Saskatchewan

January 23, 2020, Regina, SK. - First Nations University of Canada (FNUniv), in collaboration with the National Centre for Collaboration in Indigenous Education (NCCIE), are pleased to announce its 4th Annual Elders' Gatherings. This is the second year to host the Elders' Gatherings in three of its campus locations.

The theme is Indigenous Languages and the Intricacies of our Worldviews. Both resident and guest Elders and Knowledge Keepers from across various provinces will share their knowledge, stories, teachings, and practices at all three events.

Launched during the University's 40th Anniversary Celebrations, the Elders' Conference, now renamed as Elders' Gathering, began with our resident Elders, who work with students and staff on our three campuses (Regina, Saskatoon, and Prince Albert).

The first gathering will be held January 28th, 2020 at the Saskatoon Inn & Conference Centre in Saskatoon, the second on February 19th and 20th on our Regina campus, and the third and last gathering will be held on March 12th in Prince Albert, location to be confirmed.

This event is free and open to the public and the media, however, attendees must be registered. As of Friday, January 17th, 2020, the 1st event has Sold Out.
