Media Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Monday, December 5, 2022

A Christmas Challenge to Raise Funds for Local Charities

Regina, Saskatchewan – The First Nations University of Canada Board Member Edward Mirasty, Director of Education with the Prince Albert Grand Council (PAGC), has set out a Christmas Challenge for other organizations to give to the less fortunate during this Christmas season.

On Friday, December 2, 2022, the Prince Albert Grand Council raised over $1,300 for the Salvation Army at their Christmas staff dinner. It was a spontaneous activity that was well received by all in attendance. The spirit of giving to the homeless during this frigid weather brought out the generous hearts of all.

 "I want to take this opportunity to thank each of you for giving during the Christmas staff function," says Edward, "Thank you to PAGC staff members who made this amazing contribution to help their fellow neighbours during this holiday season."

Mr. Mirasty challenges all corporate Christmas events to dig deep in their wallets and raise funds for their local Salvation Army or other charities. Let the light shine in your city and bring the warmth of Christmas.

Edward H. Mirasty is the Chair of the Governance and Human Resource Committee of the FNUniv Board of Governors.

#30

About First Nations University of Canada
Established in 1976, the First Nations University of Canada is Canada's only national First Nations-owned post-secondary institution. FNUniv is a unique educational institution of higher learning specializing in Indigenous Education for Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples of all cultural backgrounds. Our Vision is to aspire to have a transformative impact by bridging our ceremonies, knowledge keepers, languages, and traditions with the delivery of high-quality post-secondary education. For more information, please visit www.fnuniv.ca.

For media inquiries only, please contact:
Bonnie Rockthunder
Senior Communications Officer
Cell: 204.292.3253   Email: comm@firstnationsuniversity.ca