First Nations University of Canada Launch Redesigned Website

Regina, SK - First Nations University of Canada (FNUniv) is pleased to announce the launch of our newly redesigned website. Working collaboratively with Engineered Code Consulting Inc., we developed a website with a clean design and user-friendly functionality, while maintaining our unique Indigenous identity.

Our goal of the redesign was to provide our visitors with ease of navigation for locating program information, be more visually appealing, highlight our student, alumni & faculty achievements and produce an overall higher student satisfaction.

Our content will be updated on regular basis with news, announcements, events and student & academic information. Please be sure to visit often at www.fnuniv.ca.

We hope that the new redesign appeals to you and we appreciate any feedback, suggestions, and comments.

Feel free to connect with us at info@fnuniv.ca or through our social media, Facebook or Twitter.
